

KEEPING THE SPIRIT OF RAMADAN ALIVE

Ramadan is over
My heart feels sad
That doesn't mean
I will start to be bad
I'll try to continue the good habits I started
To honour the days that I fasted
My prayers will continue as they should I'll keep memorising as much as I could
I'll always do good as much as I can
To please Allah SWT is my plan
The month of Mercy has been gone
But my love for Allah will carry on
Because of that I'll always try
To be the best I can until the end of my time
I'll pray, read, fast and act
In order to keep my faith in tact
I'll remember Allah in my Dhikr
And always give lots of shukur
I miss you Ramadan,
You left as soon as you arrived
I'll always keep your spirit alive
